Twentieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

A warm welcome to our two new Priests.

We are very lucky to have two wonderful priests joining us here at the Sacred Heart. . Our new Parish Priest will be Canon Michael Buckley who is coming from Little Hulton where he has been very busy looking after two parishes, homes for the sick & elderly, a Hospice and a Hospital. Canon Buckley will join us first for Mass the weekend of the 9 /10th September.

He sent you all a message to say that he is really looking forward to coming here to the Sacred Heart and meeting you all and working with you in the parish.

Some of you will have seen him already because he was at Fr. O' Kane's Diamond Jubilee Dinner but he didn't know, and we didn't know, then that he was coming here as our Parish Priest. He also asks us to pray for him.

Our new Assistant Priest is Father Kevin Murphy, who some of you met when he celebrated the two lovely Masses on Tuesday the Feast of the Assumption Fr. Murphy joins us from Clitheroe. He will be here to celebrate both Masses this weekend and then will part 'move in' on Tuesday. He will celebrate Mass on Wed, Thurs, & Friday at 9.30 am but will then return to Clitheroe. He will be back in time for Confession on Saturday at 5.30 pm and the Vigil Mass at 6.00 pm.

Father Murphy was delighted with his welcome on Tuesday from the congregation all the Altar Servers and the singing.

We are sorry to lose Fr. O' Kane but you will be pleased to know that he is settling in well in Cathedral House, Salford, where he has several Priest friends.

Missing - did you see it

Last Saturday when Monica Reade received her Papal Medal there was also a lapel brooch in the box that can be worn on regular occasions. It was in the box on the altar when she was presented with the medal but then somehow disappeared.

Obviously Monica is very upset about this because it is irreplaceable. We have searched high and low. We are hoping that maybe someone picked it up not realising what it was - it is yellow and white the size of a 5p piece. If you saw it please let Jeanette know.
